

Earial - 5:45

(Music, arrangement, lyrics: Steven van der Steen © 2006) my stomach creeps when i think of the day ahead because the difference of now and then is oh so sad there's orange light in my safe room that soothes my skin which reminds me of a place i'll go that's not resembling

i feel stark naked, afraid i'll fail without lover wings and i can't imagine that i won't cause i'm almost crying

is this my paradox
completes us all
is this how my life talks

step by step i make a choice and in the end it's good to be back were i was not planned to be sent
