

Earial - My Pink Fairytale

(Music, arrangement, lyrics: Steven van der Steen © 2001) never fall asleep, the strenght that you should keep no farewell you're almost done - it's true, believe in what is good you should

a bitter smile, forgotten trust candles lit, i hope and wait i closed the doors, i hide i must would you let me if i may?

the customs hated you, another thing to lose it's ok now reborn saturnine, awaiting valentine not again - no

to pick me up and stand me by
as far as i know far away my tragic illness never saves i stand alone, you see, i'm thinking quietly take a rest my mirror image shows i stand still while others go and find a comfort look, worried mind mental life i hope to find the outer rings are out of reach the only thing that bothers me

where are the dangerous delights?
as far as i know far away
