

Earial - Nowhere Is Too Far

(Music, arrangement, lyrics: Steven van der Steen © 2005) i want to start all over i want to be much older it drops down beside me it feels like a nightmare everything i've ever knew was a cold department i have never felt have you seen a mad bull on the run forcing the only way out it is strong it runs out devided

but he can hide it

nowhere is too far for us and i know we'll come to our resort as well pennies are all fake when in your halo tomorrow will be gone

everything you say reminds me that i owe shouldn't that be wrong?

and a peasant gazes up the sky wonders if the rainy clouds pass by it drops down beside him

is there any comfort left on this floating ball i hope that you can tell

shouldn't that be wrong?
